BETTER RACING DOWNSOUTH

GOOD WEATHER AND TRACK IMPROVE MATTERS AT CITY PARK.

Jack Atkin Shows Nimble Heels to Crack Sprinters-Men and Horses Are Pouring in.

New Orleans, La., December 2,-An unusually attractive Monday card was offered race patrons this afternoon and the sport resulting was good and The fourth race was exceptionally meritorious on account of the presence of several stake horses of more than ordinary caliber. The arrival of a big eastern delegation furnished additional impetus and the speculation was the best of the meeting. From now on it is predicted that racing will improve rapidly and exceed the standard of former years. Jack Atkin, retrieved some of his laurels, on account of his crushing defeat in the Test Stakes by Pinkola, when he led the others home in today's feature race. He showed a mar velous flight of speed and never left the result in doubt, winning eased to a canter near the end from Lord Lovat, while Juggler, under an inefficient ride, barely took third place. Burlew & O'Neill thought highly of their representative and backed him with confidence. That he did not finish better than third was solely the fault of McDaniel, who got him away in a rear position and allowed him to trail far in the rear of the others until well straightened out for the stretch run. The speedy Colloquy, after running in forward pursuit of Jack Atkin to the stretch turn, fell back and was soundly beaten. The showing of Tileing in the race was commendable and in future he will be a sharp factor in any company.

Close finishes came with the running of the first races, the winner's margin in each instance being of the narrowest kind. In the third the placing of Dr. McCluer as winner over Marsh Redon, met with disapproval. Marsh Redon appeared to some to have won. Fifteen started in the first and second races. Aim gained a narrow victory over Task Master because of Powers' superior ride over McDaniel and, Pickens on No Quarter, out finished Joseph Hogg on Artful Dodger.

The officials of the big tracks delivered the half-mile track across from City Park a body blow when they announced that any owner in good standing applying for license would receive due consideration. It is thought that many owners who participated in the racing at the half-mile track will avail themselves of the opportunity to get back into the fold and, by forcing the small track, it is thought very little material will be available to conduct the meeting, which is advertised to open on Wed-

John Warren was among today's arrivals and is trying to interest horsemen in the proposed thirty day meeting to be held at Tampa, Florida, beginning Febraury 1. Mr. Warren assures horsemen that bookmaking with the old style booths will be tolerated by special license. This is the first time in years that the Florida authorities would The meeting is said to be backed by allow this. Smith & Perry, of Chicago.

Fred Burlew is eager for the associations here to give a special race that will bring together Chapultepec and Pinkola at six furlongs. Mr. Burlew has a high regard for the Fizer representative and stated today that he would give $12,000 for the oungster, conditionally that he meets requirements after inspection.

Jockey C. Koerner was suspended for four days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

P. Dunne's Lens had to be a good horse today to overcome the interference that Brussel on Momen tum subjected him to.

of W. C. Daly's horses.

The steeplechase brigade here was reinforced considerably by the arrival of J.'W. Colt's string of six, C. J. Murray's six, and H. Flippen's three. Steeplechase jockeys McClain, C. Chandler and Grantland also got in at the same time. Jockeys Swain, Beckman, Brussel, R. McDaniel, Fairbrother and W. Woods were additions to the riding brigade from Washington. Carroll Reid's seven from Lexington arrived yesterday. P. J. Nolan brought three from Latonia and K. Patterson and C. C. Van Meter brought a carload from Louisville. From San Ancame today the racers of Burttschell Bros., N. Freeman, J. J. Ogles, C. E. Brosius and G. W.

The bookmakers' ranks were reinforced by the arrivals of A. Valentine, P. Worth, E. Hirsch, B. Garson and Counsellor Lichtenstein, brother to Among the heavy operators to land were M. Demarest, H. Reeves, F. B. Nichols and P.

Jockey T. Taylor will leave tomorrow night for Louisville, from where, after a short stay, he will go to Santa Anita Park near Los Angeles to ride for El Alvey.

OAKLAND RACING CONTINUES FAST.

Roalta Runs a Rapid Six Furlongs-Old Gorgalete Scores in a Drive.

Oakland, Cal., December 2.—Presiding steward E. C. Hopper announced today that in the interest of clean racing at Oakland, Fireball, the beaten 1 to 3 favorite in the closing race on Saturday, will not be allowed to start in future races on the local track unless he is backed by the approval of the official veterinary surgeon, who was instructed to examine him carefully beforehand. Dr. Saylor was brought out here from New York and is being paid a big salary to detect evidences of "doping" and other signs of unfitness on the part of the horses engaged in the different races, date he has done nothing to indicate discoveries. The Lone Wolf so-called reversal of form was dis missed without action. The owner, who has been known to risk as much as $20 of real money on his horses, was able to produce convincing proof that on this particular occasion that he had backed Lon-Wolf to the limit and was accordingly exonerated. Approximately 8,000 race-goers Luise pulled up in the last hundred yards by jockey Moreland in the second race and nipped out for second place by E. M. Brattain. This trifling offense cost Moreland a week's suspension, always ex-cepting to his employer, E. Trotter, who will be allowed to ride him on his own horses. The sensational feature of an otherwise uneventful and moderately attractive card, was the victory of Walter Miller on Red Ball, at one time a 25 to 1 chance. Only the died-in-the-wool pikers and loyal followers of the champion jockey profited by this astonishing upset.

were engaged in the closing race Good horses Thomas H. Williams' colt, Roalta, with Miller up and materially aided by the starter, scored a brilliant victory. Two favorites, Lackfoot at 4 to 5 and Gorgalete, at 11 to 5, Roalta, a second choice and three outsiders accounted for the card. one-best-bet just now is the weather, which is ideal for facing.

Denny Bros. shipped their horses to Arcadia yes terday. G. H. Keene shipped on the same train. W. B. Jennings sent Confederate along in the Keens car.

NO NEW JOCKEY CLUB ORGANIZED.

Breeders Appoint Committee to Correspond with Interests in Other States.

Lexington, Ky., December 2.-Messrs. Milton Young, E. R. Clay, T. J. Carson, L. P. Tarlton, E. C. Cowdin, J. V. Shipp, Walter Hopkins, Fletcher Driver, Thomas F. Kelly, Jonett S. House Dr. M. M. Leech and several others met in the Phoenix Hotel at noon today to discuss means to better the government of the turf in the west. Some came with a notion of forming a new jockey club, but discussion developed that it was the sense of the gathering that such a movement at this time without the backing of tracks might prove fruitless, and that the logical and proper cours to take as a means looking to an ultimate organization of a more powerful governing body lay through the appointment of committees in the to build up associations for various states purpose of urging legislation favorable to racing and securing the creation of a racing commission in each state similar to those of New York and Accordingly, the following resolution was adopted:

"That the following named persons are reques to form themselves into a committee to enter into communication with persons in other states interested in breeding and racing thoroughbred and standard bred horses: Major P. P. Johnston, Lexington; Major Foxhall A. Daingerfield, Lexington; George J. Long, Louisville; R. H. Anderson, George town; Thomas C. McDowell, Lexington; James E. Clay, Paris; Catesby Woodford, Paris; J. N. Camden, Jr., Versailles; Major T. J. Carson, Lexington and Senator J. W. Bailey, Texas.

"The above named are also requested to asso ciate with them any other persons in this state of any other state that their judgment may suggest." Major Carson was designated as chairman of this committee and will call the gentlemen com posing it together at an early date.

Trainer John Ireland left this afternoon for Los Angeles with fifteen coming two-year-olds and twelve older horses belonging to R. L. Thomas. It was his intention to ship vesterday, but a yearling colt by Star Shoot-Chapter developed a distemper just before loading time and Ireland decided to wait until the end of the week in the hope that the youngster could be taken along. Mr. Thomas, however, telegraphed from Louisville early this morning to go on without the colt. He was put in charge of Dan Morris and when he recovers will be turned out.

ONLY ROUTINE BUSINESS.

The Western Jockey Club held its annual meeting at the offices in the First National Bank building yesterday. Stewards C. S. Bush. Angelo S. Cella, R. Fitzgerald and S. R. Montgomery and Secretary H. T. Woodruff attended. Martin Nathanson was the only absentee. Only routine business was transacted. On application Clem Creveling, former racing secretary of the Queen City Jockey Club of Newport, Ky., was reinstated to good standing. R. Fitzgerald was elected chairman for the ensuing year and C. S. Bush vice-chairman. Harvey T. Woodruff was re-elected secretary-treasurer and forfeit clerk.

Winner—Blk. m, by Figaro—Afamada (trained by H. G. Bedwell).
Went to post at 2:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Meada, greatly improved, held a position in prominent contention in the middle running and made good decisively at the end. Progress made the running by a wide gap to the final sixteenth, where he tired and finished boring out. The Reprobate, after nearest pursuit of the leader, also failed in the closing drive and pulled up lame. Hersain loomed up menacingly on the last turn and tired finally as if short. Lovey Mary came fast from the rear and finished well. Croix d'Or, away badly, closed a gap. Lustig ran a bad race. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Ch. c. by Lieber Karl—Marguerite A. (trained by J. Coffey).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Red Isall, from a striding start, ran in close attendance on the leaders to the stretch, then came along on the inside and scored a game victory. Sainrida, away badly, closed up rapidly into a fast gaining and close second and was best. Sam McGibben drew out on the far turn and led to the stretch, but tired finally. Surety closed up well in the last six furlongs. Calmar, nearly left, closed a gap. Silver Line retired early after having a striding start. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Ch. m, by Rey del Sierras—Blizzard (trained by P. Reilly).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same.

Gorgalete, after being reserved in forward pursuit of Kermit, drew out on the inside midway of the stretch, but tired and just lasted the journey. Jack Adams, suddenly improved, ran close up throughout and finished with a belated rush. Nine Spot, after trailing in the early running, closed an immense gap in the last half. Fisher Boy, nearly left, steadily improved his position on the extreme outside, but failed to get up after an extra good race. Etapa, crowded back at the half, held his own and ran a good race.

Kermit drew out and made the running to the stretch, then quit unexpectedly. The winner was entered

THE NEW YORK BREEDING BUREAU

Steps Just Taken by the Great Racing Bodies to Increase Its Premium Lists.

Through its breeding bureau, the Jockey Club is doing invaluable service to the state of New York in the way of improving its breed of horses. The work is practically in its infancy, but will before long begin to tell heavily in enhanced values, resulting from crossing thoroughbred stallions or coarse-bred mares. The New York example is bear ing fruit and steps to emulate it are already in progress in Kentucky, Louisiana, California and Missouri. Daily Racing Form regrets that Illinois is not in the list. One or two thoroughbred stal-lions located in each county of this state under regulations similar to those prevailing in New York, would add millions to the selling value of our horses after a few years of service. As a practical statement of the case, the following from the New York Sun is of decided interest and among other things show how loyally and effectively the big racing organizations are supporting and supplementing the work of the Jockey Club:

There are forty-eight thoroughbred stallions distributed throughout thirty-six counties in New York The Jockey Club, in order to e patronage of these horses, last year offered premi ums at the fairs for weanlings by them, and these prizes are to be augmented by the Coney Island Club, Brooklyn Jockey Club, Westchester Racing Association and the Brighton Beach Racing Association. Each of these associations has decided to donate a prize of $100 to county fairs in counties where a stallion of the Breeding Bureau located. This will be a total of $14,400, each or ganization contributing $3,500.

"With commendable judgment all of these awards will not be for the half-bred type. The trotting horse, which numbers his admirers in New York tens of thousands, will be cared for and the general purpose horse, that most useful of horse big enough to plow and quick enough to go for the doctor, will also have his inning, in short, the rearing of the best types will be fostered by this latest move for the improvement of one of man's

"These prizes will be for the home breds only, that is, the various candidates must be owned in the counties in which they are shown. This will prevent specimens of superlative merit from sweep ing the ring. Each county will have its own repre sentatives in competition. With such encouragement it is not too much to predict that in a few years our dealers will not be scouring Kentacky, Missouri, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and other states for the animal that will bring the high dollar, whether at auction or at private sale. The following is a list of prizes offered by the various racing associ-

"The Coney Island Jockey Club donates to the county fair in each county in the state of New possessing a stallion of the breeding bureau of the Jockey Club the sum of $100 as a spe prize, to be named, 'The Coney Island Jockey Club Premium,' for the best yearling shown at the county fair which shall be the produce of a mare in the county and sired by the breeding bureau's stallion, the winner of the first prize to receive $75 and of the second $25.

"The Brooklyn Jockey Club donates to the county fair in each county in the state of New York possessing a stallion of the breeding bureau of the Jockey Club the sum of $100 as a special prize, to be known as "The Brooklyn Jockey Club Pre-mium," for the best broodmare with foal at foot, such foal sired by a thoroughbred stallion as placed by the breeding bureau of the Jockey Club in the state of New York. Competitors must be owned in the county in which they are shown, the winner of the first prize to receive $75 and of the second "The Westchester Racing Association donates a special prize of $100 for two-year-old trotters, colts, fillies or geldings, to be shown at county fairs in the state of New York, where special premiums of $200 or more are offered for the get of thoroughbred stallions installed by the breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club, the prize to be known as the 'Westchester Racing Association Premium,' the winner to receive $75 and the second $25. Competitors must be owned in the county in which the fair is held. Contestants may be shown in hand or by the side of a saddle horse.

"The Brighton Beach Racing Association donate special prize of $100 for three-year-olds, mares, geldings, suitable for general purposes, $75 to first and $25 to second, to be shown at county fairs in the state of New York where special pre miums of $200 or more are offered for the get of thoroughbred stallions installed by the bureau of breeding of the Jockey Club, the prize to be known as the mium.' 'Brighton Beach Racing Association Pre There are no particular conditions as to Competitors must be owned in the county in which the fair is held. Contestants may be shown in hand or by the side of a saddle horse.

"The work begun by the Jockey Club, through its breeding bureau thoroughbred stallions of size and of good conformation were placed in competent hands throughout the Empire State to stand for general service at a nominal fee of $10, which goes to the custodian of the horse, was a tremendous stride in the line of improvement, as there is no better basic blood than that of the thoroughbred, particularly when the individual pos sesses those most invaluable qualifications—size, color and temper. The members of breeding bureau commission have made it a point to install only those stallions which meet the above requirements, and as a consequence there are today this state hundreds of youngsters from coldblooded dams which will become at maturity splendid specimens of a type of the most useful horse in the world. The beauty of the thoroughbred cross is that the blood of the stallion predominate and refines the coarser elements of the dam.

"The best of our heavyweight hunters, a class of horse which commands tremendous prices in the horse markets of the world, are out of dams whose ancestors were prized because of their size and strength and whose days were spent between shafts of a cart. Wasp, the largest prize-winning hunter at the recent National Horse Show, is on of these half-bred weight carriers, and he repeat flew the stiff jumps with 210 pounds in the saddle. The trotting family, which is probably as near an accepted type as we have in America today, is an ideal cross for the thoroughbred. Some of the trotting families have nothing but their gait to commend them, while others have beauty, but no gait or speed, except what is produced by the most assiduous training. Some trotters bred in trotting for generations pace or amble and require artificial appliances to make them strike the gait which should be theirs by inheritance. The thoroughbred cross eliminates these characteristics, and some of our best carriage horses and many of our best saddle animals are the result of the thorobred trotting cross."

WHAT KENTUCKY BUREAU HAS DONE.

Lexington, Ky., December 2 .- In an address to the breeders who met at the Phoenix Hotel today, Colonel E. F. Clay made an appeal for funds with which to extend the work of the Kentucky Breeding Bureau. In telling of the work that has been accomplished he said that the bureau had placed twenty-six stallions in various counties, and that reports from seventeen of the horses show that they were bred to 950 mares.

"I expect," said he, "that when we hear from the other stallions the number of mares served will approach 1,400. When foals begin to appear next spring they will be a vast improvement over those heretofore foaled by the mares from which I have no hesitancy in saying that the work done by the bureau is the most important ever accomplished by the breeders of Kentucky. We must try to place a stallion in every county where people now have no access to thoroughbred blood. tell you, gentlemen, that from this work will come to the entire thoroughbred industry the greatest possible benefit. One of the chief benefits will be in counteracting the effect of preachings of those who have created the sentiment that the thorough bred is of no value save for racing." Colonel Clay concluded with a request for donations of money of twelve-year-old bay mare Tit Tat, of the Brownleigh Park Stud, died en route to Kentucky from the farm at Goshen, N. Y., last week.

NOTES OF THE TURE.

Jockey Musgrave is on his way to Los Angele from New York, where he will ride this winter for P. T. Chinn.

Rufus C. Bush, who was entry clerk at the Cres cent City track in New Orleans last year, is now conducting a hotel in that city.

Dr. Thomas M. Cassidy has put Greeno by for the winter in care of Thomas McCreery at Belmont Park, McCreery will point him next spring for the Benning Spring Handicap.

W. O'B. Macdonough has sent from Menlo Farm, five fillies by St. Carlo, to Kentucky where they will be bred next spring at Thomas H. Gardner's Timberlake Farm to public stallions.

Cliff Hammon, who has been acting as manager of W. H. Brown's Senorita Stud for the past year, accepted the managership of the Idle Hour Stock Farm owned by E. R. Bradley.

William Gerst has purchased at private sale from Milton Young the yearling brown colt by Sorcerer -Emma Louise, by Zorilla and the yearling chestnut filly by Nasturtium-Helena, by Mortemer.

Owner Stokes, it is reported, will donate his old campaigner, Banker, to the Jockey Club Breeding Bureau for service in New York state. If this is true, Banker ran his last race Saturday in the Maximum Stakes.

H. T. Oxnard lost the nineteen-year-old bay mare Mary C., by Billet-Vega, by death at Lexington, The mare injured her back while on the Ky. to the sale from Blue Ridge and died shortly after being unloaded. It is reported that H. T. Oxnard has leased for a period of three years the stud services of the stallion Ormondale from his owner, W. O'B. Mac the donough, and will mate him next spring with a dozen choice mares now at Blue Ridge. Trainer Hirsch, since Beauclere won the Maximum Stakes Saturday, is of the opinion that the horse should be sent to Oakland to run in the Thornton Stakes. Whether owner Lemaire will coincide with this view is yet to be seen.

J. L. Holland will, it is said, buy a stable of steeplechasers next spring and as a stockholder of the Los Angeles Racing Association, will try and persuade his associates to make provision for racing through the field at Santa Anita next year.

King's Counsel, the thirteen-year-old chestnut stallion which George C. Bennett withdrew from the sale at Lexington last week, has been sold at private sale to A. C. Quisenberry, of Lincoln, Ill. and has been shipped to the Quisenberry farm at that place.

No Quarter, away slowly and going wide most of the way, finished fast and gamely and, wearing down Artful Dodger in the closing strides, won drawing away. Artful Dodger set a fast pace and, after appearing a certain winner in the stretch, tired as if short. Lucy Young had a rough trip and ran a good race. Miss Affable had to go around the others and finished gamely under poor riding. Lightning Conductor showed speed, but tired near the end. Hughes ran into contention in the first half and quit in the stretch. Ralbert disliked the hard track and will show improvement in mud. Sheen was speedy, but was shuffled back after going a half. Neptune was badly ridden. Javanese can do better. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Horoscope—Emma C., by Darebin (trained by W. Whalen).
Went to post at 4:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handlly; second driving; third the same, escope, showing good form and the most speed, dashed into the lead on the first turn, set the pace to end and won well in hand. Docile, showing sudden improvement, was close up throughout and finished lely. Tinker was allowed to drop far back, but closed if big gap in the stretch and finished gamely leview was a forward contender for the first three-quarters, then tired. Horseradish showed speed, but in the stretch. Charlatan ran poorly. Jacquin can do much better when fit. The winner was entered $400: no bid.
